

I listen to KLOVE every day as a travel in my car and at home. I enjoy the music they play. It is very uplifting and improves my attitude. If KLOVE were to be replaced, I don't think that it would be replaced by another uplifting station. Some of the music played on secular stations is very distressing. I believe that it is an improvement to our community by the positive comments that one hears each day.